Any Place of Amusement Germany issued a new series of decrees yesterday to complete "the liquidation of the Jews." At fine of 1,000,000,000 marks was imposed on all of them. Owners were ordered to repair all damaged property and their insurance was confiscated. Virtually all business was closed to Jews. They were barred from amusement places. Further drastic decrees will be issued soon. [Page 1.] Egged on by a speech by the Bavarian Minister of the Interior, a Nazi mob broke windows in the palace of Cardinal Faulhaber at Munich. He had previously appealed for police protection. Jews were forbidden to open their shops, but were ordered to pay their employees. [Page 1.]	True	By Otto D. Tolischuswireless To the New York Times.
